

Enquete – “A social Europe is possible!” Preconference - Vienna Townhall

Sunday, 8th September 2019 1400 – 1730

Programme

Chair: Ana Radulescu

Moderator: David N. Jones

The Enquete (Symposium) provides a unique opportunity for practitioners and academics in social work to discuss the idea of creating a “Social Europe” with politicians, members of EU administration and media.

- What are the demands?
- How can we contribute?
- With whom and how can this idea be realized?
- What is the role of social workers in this fight for a value-based society?

14:00 Welcome by Ana Radulescu, President IFSW Europe

14:10 Statements from the panel

15:30 Panel Discussion

16:30 – 17:30 Welcome Get together

The Enquete is free of charge. Registration is necessary

<https://www.ifsw2019.com/pre-conference-enquete-social-europe/>

Thematic Inputs:

Nikolaus Dimmel – Social Scientist

Dragos Pislaru – Member of European Parliament, former Minister of Labour and Social Affairs, Romania

Katarina Ivanković Knežević, Director Directorate C - Social affairs
DG Employment, Social Affairs and Inclusion

Joe Weidenholzer, Social Scientist , Member of European Parliament (2009-2019)

Roland Fürst, Social Scientist, Journalist,

Alfonso Lara Montero, Chief Executive Director ESN – European Social Network

Adelheid Wöfl, Journalistin (derStandard-Osteuropa) (angefragt)

Herbert Paulschin, Social Worker